

Loyalty Note Taking Sheet

Two examples of loyalty are:

1. _____ (hint – furry)
2. _____ (hint – heart)

Webster’s definition of Loyalty:

What are your thoughts on the statement, “You find that any place you can think of to travel to is found, as well as some places impossible to imagine. Those places are usually waystations on the way to somewhere else.”

How can such freedom in travel and movement test loyalty to a Master or Boss?

What is the only thing that gives Jarl, as an earthman, hope?

How can hope – or the lack of it – affect loyalty to a person or principle?

How does the last sentence of the Prologue express loyalty?

What action did Jarl take in this last sentence that demonstrates his loyalty?

The name “Jarl” means? (Hint – armor)

How did Jarl know Jesus was real?

A Disaster hit Jarl and his sister.

How did he respond?

What was he to do with his grief?

How have you faced the healing of raw, internal wounds? How have they affected your loyalty to God, family or friends?

Why might it be important to let go before moving forward, as Jarl was advised to do?

Who was the Key to Jarl’s Spacewalker training?

What were the two key things Jarl remembered about Jesus when he first met him?

What does Hebrews 11 say (Chapter 7) about how the worlds were prepared?

Even when things seem impossible, we can refuse to doubt because of what?
What did Jesus tell Jarl?

Words have the power in them to create what? To bring what?

You can have “El Shaddai” working for you. What does El Shaddai mean? How did that look in Jarl’s life (Chapter 8)? How does it look in yours?

You can belong to the one who has all power and authority. How did that help Jarl (Chapter 9)? How can that help you?

You can have a life that exhibits this verse: Proverbs 21:21 “He who pursues righteousness and loyalty finds life, righteousness and honor.” How would that look in your life?

Where did Jarl live? Where do we live? (Chapter 10)

How did the Apostle Paul describe this?

How does loyalty at this level affect everything else in our lives?

What is your one main takeaway from Jarl’s initial journey in these first 10 chapters?

What is your perspective of how loyalty played out in this section?

How loyal are you?

How can you increase your loyalty to God? Family? Friends? Employer?

